Consent for photography and filming

In accordance with our child protection policy we will not permit photographs, video or other images of young people to be taken without the consent of the child or the parent if the child is under 16.

Please make sure you have read and understood all information about photography and filming as is stated on Mystique Cheer and Dance photography and filming policy (available on club website) before signing the document.

Mystique Cheer and Dance will take all steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately you should inform Fiona Tyacke (head coach and lead for safeguarding)_immediately.
